Narberth Man Was Noted Baseball Player at U. of P.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 50th and Catherine Sts., Philadelphia, for Richard H. Wallace, who died Saturday in Bryn Mawr Hospital. Interment was private.

Mr. Wallace, who lived at 15 Windsor Ave., Narberth, was the son of the late Richard H. Wallace, former vice president of the Girard Life Insurance Company, and one of the first Burgesses of Narberth. Born in 1892, he was graduated in 1915 from the University of Pennsylvania, where he won fame as a pitcher and captain of the baseball team. As a young man in Narberth, he was a member of the Borough's baseball team.

One of the early volunteers in the last war, he rose to the rank of captain in the infantry. Soon after the war, his family moved away from Narberth, but since his return five years ago, he has been an active member of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion.

After the war he was associated with several real estate firms and for the past 12 years was real estate administrator at the Provident Trust Company.

Come Out Monday And Help Organize Local Service Club

Organization representatives and interested individuals are invited to attend a meeting this Monday at 8 P. M. at the Ardmore Woman's Clubhouse, Ardmore Ave., Ardmore, when plans will be formulated for a Community Service Club.

As a start in the right direction, the Woman's Club of Ardmore has announced that it will donate the use of the clubhouse.

At Monday's meeting, a committee will be formed to work out the details of establishing a center where servicemen home on leave and those studying at Main Line colleges may find relaxation and recreation.

Mrs. Fred Zacher, president of the Woman's Club, will preside at the meeting, and Mrs. William F. Leisman will outline tentative ideas for the new community project.

Among those who will attend are Mrs. Henry Earnshaw for the Red Cross; L. A. Eppinger for the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. F. N. Floyd for the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs; Sergeant Harding of the U. S. Army Air Forces Training Detachment at Haverford College; the Rev. Frank Wood, assistant pastor of the Ardmore Presbyterian Church; and Mrs. Atkinson, of Wayne, who organized the community Aviation Club there for cadets at Volley Forge Military Academy.

RED CROSS OPENS NEW CENTER MAY 1

Air Cadets from Haverford College in Parade

U. S. Army air cadets who are taking pre-meteorological training at Haverford College will participate in a parade on May 1 marking the opening of the new Main Line Branch Red Cross Center.

More than 200 of the cadets, accompanied by an Army band, will parade with the Red Cross from Haverford College to Suburban Square where opening ceremonies will be held.

The new center, located in the old American store at the corner of Montgomery Ave. and St. George's Rd., Ardmore, will serve as Blood Donor center, Junior Red Cross headquarters and workrooms for the enlarged program of the Main Line Branch.

The addition of the new center will mark one of the greatest steps taken by the Main Line Branch to improve its services. The center, 70 by 40 feet, has been almost completely equipped by donations of stoves, sinks, iceboxes by Main Line residents.

At the dedication ceremonies, tentatively planned at the Suburban Square parking lot, several Red Cross officials and servicemen will give short addresses.

In charge of the parade is a committee headed by G. Forde Hansell, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Alfred M. Campbell, Jr., Mrs. John M. Hays, Miss Catherine Rambo, Mrs. Paul A. Bishop, Harold J. Keating, Mrs. Summer Rulon Miller, Mrs. A. Balfour Brohman, and Mrs. Leslie F. Mulford.

Why Buy Bonds?

A statement by

SAMUEL K. McCONNELL, Jr.,
Chairman, Second War Loan Drive,
Lower Merion and Narberth District

The Second War Loan drive is a challenge to every resident of Lower Merion and Narberth. We all know the need—that the Government must have more money to prosecute the war vigorously, the way we want it conducted.

We don't have to be told that the boys in the service, our sons, husbands and neighbors, must be backed up with all the necessary implements of war and that these things cost a lot of money. We know that we are not being asked to give but merely to lend our money; that the security of the investment is the best in the world. We know these things and we must act accordingly. We owe it to our boys and to ourselves.

We Lower Merion and Narberth folks are accustomed to putting our shoulders to the wheel. This is our job. Let's get on with it!

HOW CONSUMERS CAN HELP IN MANPOWER SHORTAGE

Many retailers are striving to compensate for the help shortage by making it easier for customers to do some of their purchasing without the aid of salespeople or with less help than formerly. We may look for further changes of this kind in the near future.

We may also find new arrangements of merchandise to provide simplified selling. Displays may be seen and examined and then the salesperson will obtain the size and color which is desired. We may even make our selection and then take purchases to a special location where we can pay for it and have it wrapped.

Even now we are noticing that certain types of goods are lacking altogether and certainly we cannot expect the assortment we had in peace time.

As individual consumers we can help by:

1. Reading all signs above merchandise before asking questions.
2. Tell what we want as completely as possible instead of making the salesperson drag out the information by a series of questions.
3. Shop in the morning when the stores are not crowded.
4. Be conscientious about carrying our purchases. This will save rubber and gas and also help relieve the personnel shortage in wrapping and delivery departments.
5. Be sure to be home when you are expecting a delivery—or make arrangements so that it may be left with a neighbor.

WOMEN RADIO TECHNICIANS NEEDED; CLASSES START APRIL 28

Free training classes for women and girls as radio technicians will start at Harcum Junior College April 28. The classes will be held from 2 to 5 P. M. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

The course is sponsored by the Navy League Service. Upon completion of the course, trainees are eligible for employment by the Army and Navy and several radio stations.

Further information may be obtained by calling Rittenhouse 3341 or Narberth 2579.

RATIONING FOR SERVICEMEN

Servicemen on furlough for three days or more may obtain ration certificates for meats and fats from their local board on the basis of eight "red" points for each three days of their furlough and sixteen "blue" points (processed food stamps) for each week of leave. Leave papers must be furnished at the time application for ration is made.

ADDITIONAL RATIONS FOR ILL PERSONS

Persons who are ill and require more rationed food than is provided in the normal ration must make application for supplementary ration to their local War Price and Rationing Board. At this time a written statement from a licensed physician or surgeon must accompany the application. This statement must include the following information:

The nature of the illness.
What additional food is required, including types and amounts and why non-rationed items are not satisfactory.

COOKING SCHOOLS FOR INSTRUCTIONAL PURPOSES

Cooking schools, demonstration classes and domestic science classes which use rationed meats and fats for instructional purposes, being engaged in experimentation, are classed as industrial users and must register at the local War Price and Rationing Board where the principal business office of the school or class is and the board will issue an allotment to cover the use of the foods used during these classes.

NEW BICYCLES FOR RATIONING IN APRIL

In the Eastern gasoline shortage area, bicycles are being rationed to anyone gainfully employed in any occupation, or doing work necessary to the War Program or public welfare, if he can show absolute need for a bicycle at least four days a week for a minimum three mile round trip in getting to or doing his work. School pupils who need bicycles for transportation to and from school will also become eligible.

RAISE BUDGET FOR TEACHERS INCREASE

First Teacher Leaves In August to Join WAVES

The Narberth School Board last Thursday night passed a $108,289.40 budget which will provide for a $100 increase for each school teacher in the district.

To take care of the increase the budget is slightly higher than the $105,824.40 budget of 1942.

Despite the increase school directors held the same 18 mills tax rate of last year.

This is the second $100 increase given the teachers since war was declared.

At the same meeting the school directors heard that their first woman teacher to join the service had enlisted in the WAVES and would be called about August. She is Miss Miriam Schlager, third grade teacher.

Because of the illness of her mother, Miss Agnes Taylor, home economics teacher, has asked for a year's leave of absence. A six months leave of absence was granted to Mrs. Elizabeth Gregory, first grade teacher.

In addition to holding the tax at the same rate school directors announced there would be no per capita tax this year.

School Eligible for Minute Man Flag

W. J. Drennen, principal of Narberth Public School, reported to the School Board last week that teachers and pupils had now earned a Minute Man Flag for the school.

More than 90 percent of the teachers and pupils have contributed toward a fund that will be used for the purchase of two jeeps.

They have contributed $1,400 and $1,800 is needed.

Narberth Council Also Adopts Ruling Prohibiting Dogs from Running At Large and Damaging Property

Two protective ordinances, directly caused by the war, were passed last Monday night by Narberth Borough Council.

One ordinance formulated to protect against black market operations, governs the manufacture, distribution and sale of butter and other milk products and prohibits the sale of uninspected meat, meat products and poultry in the Borough of Narberth and provides penalties for violations.

REPORT 5582 CALLS BY VISITING NURSES

Smallpox Scare Greatly Increased Visits At Centers

Visiting nurses of the Ardmore Community Health and Civic Association made 5,582 visits during January, February and March this year, according to a report given last week by Mrs. William T. Dickson, Visiting Nurse chairman, at a joint meeting of the Visiting Nurse and Health Committees of the organization. Dr. Joseph Sands, chairman of the Health committee, presided.

Reports from these committees will be given at a meeting of the Board of the Health and Civic Association to be held this Thursday evening at the Association's headquarters, 25 E. Athens Ave., Ardmore, with Markley Stevenson, Haverford, president of the board, presiding.

Mrs. Dickson reported that in the three months period, attendance in the five Health Centers totaled 944. This was an increase of 400 over the same period last year and was due to the small-pox scare, when 573 children and some mothers were vaccinated at the centers in Ardmore, Narberth, Gladwyne, West Manayunk, and Bryn Mawr.

Bond Total Nears Million In 2nd War Loan Drive

Narberth Movie-Goers Pledge $2600; Township Invests $40,000; Flannigan Heads Drive in Bala-Cynwyd

Easter Pageant at Presbyterian Church

A pageant entitled "Simon, Bear-er of the Cross," will be presented at the Narberth Presbyterian Church on Easter Sunday at 7:45 P. M.

Taking part will be Mrs. Charles Stevens, Miss Jean Simpson, Miss Milla Ashodian, William Keller, Russell Blackwood, Jr., and Philip Young.

Officers Elected by Presbyterian Church

At the recent annual meeting of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, the following officers were elected:

Elders: Messrs. A. Wilson, W. Whittaker, W. Heard, J. Havlick; Deacons: W. J. Drennen, D. Draln, B. Nelson, J. Fox, W. Robertson, R. Heister; Trustees: A. E. Brown, C. A. Farmer, C. H. Nold.

The ordinance was passed upon the recommendation of the Board of Health of the Borough.

The provision regarding butter requires that all butter sold in the borough shall have been made from pasteurized cream produced by tuberculin tested cows and must be made with apparatus satisfactory to the Board of Health. The containers in which the butter is sold must be marked with the name and address of the manufacturer and with the words "made from pasteurized cream produced by tuberculin tested cows."

All meat, meat food products and poultry, it is required, shall have been inspected and passed by either an authorized agent of the Bureau of Animal Industry of either the Department of Agriculture of the United States or of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. However, at the discretion of the Board of Health, such products may be sold if they have been inspected and passed by a duly authorized agent of a Board of Health who is a qualified and licensed veterinarian appointed under an ordinance of a municipality of Pennsylvania, provided the inspection was made in accordance with regulations of the U. S. and Pennsylvania Departments of Agriculture. All these products must be correctly and clearly marked.

Another provision of this ordinance is that establishments where meat, meat products or poultry are prepared for sale in the Borough, whether or not such establishment is located in the Borough, shall be subject to inspection by the Narberth Board of Health.

Penalties for violation of this ordinance are: a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than $100 and costs of prosecution or, in default of payment of fine and costs, imprisonment in the County Jail for not more than 30 days.

The other wartime ordinance passed by Council prohibits dogs from running at large, or damaging or destroying property and provides penalties for violations.

Particular purpose of this ordinance is to protect the Victory gardens of Narberth residents and it was formulated after many complaints had been received by the Borough Secretary.

A fine of from five to $100 and costs or up to 30 days in jail are the penalties provided for owners of dogs which violate this ordinance.

The two ordinances, in detail, are printed elsewhere in this issue of OUR TOWN.

The goal for the township and borough in bond purchases by individuals is $1,500,000.

In addition to the amount subscribed by individuals, banks in the Lower Merion-Narberth district have subscribed $1,200,000 but this sum will be cut drastically, McConnell pointed out, when final allotments for banks are made.

A soldier or sailor who have been in action will tell of their experiences at the War Loan rally and mass meeting to be held at the Ardmore Junior High School at 8 P. M. Monday, April 26. Principal speaker will be Dr. Rex Stowers Clements, minister of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church. The Lower Merion High School band will play and the championship Lower Merion basketball team will assist.

Movie-goers at the Narberth Theatre Tuesday night heard an American sailor, Wallace Parmeter, who was torpedoed off Casablanca and turned in bond pledges

Hot, Fiery Repellants Urged for the Easter Bunny

The Lower Merion Defense Council in its campaign to protect Victory Gardens wrote out a menu for rabbits that is guaranteed to give them headaches, send cold chills dancing along their spines, double them over with indigestion, make their eyes blink, leave a bad taste in their mouths and scare them silly. Released as a pre-Easter document, when rabbits are the symbol of the children's holiday, the mixtures and conglomeration was labeled "rabbit repellants."

Just in case the repellants are not effective the Defense Council's release goes on to say that Victory Gardeners should notify the State district game "protector" to send a trapping agent who will finish the job. The only soft note sounded for the bunnies is the warning that residents by law are not permitted to kill rabbits and dispose of them out of season.

Here is a list of the repellants the defense officials recommend: Moth balls; string with white cloth streamers attached; empty catsup and soft drink bottles to reflect blinding light; "Blackleaf Forty" (a tobacco extract); one teaspoonful of creolin or lysol to one gallon of water; three ounces of epsom salts to one gallon of water; wood ashes and red pepper mixed; liberal sprinkling of dusting sulfur; powder lime sprinkled on the plants.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

WHEN Colonel Darryl Zanuck was in a plane returning from Africa, where he had been since the first days of the American occupation, a fellow passenger sitting next to him remarked, "I understand you've just come back from the Tunis Front. How was it?"

Zanuck made his reply in two words: "Good show," he said. "Good show" was an expression he had learned from the English in Algiers—a term which they use for every out-of-the-ordinary event, from a kitchen wagon that's broken down, to a particularly bloody battle. The Yanks have been quick to pick up this bit of British understatement.

Colonel Zanuck in private life (which he has very little of nowadays) is head of the Twentieth Century Fox Studios. Since Pearl Harbor, he has flown over 100,000 miles in the services of the United States Army Signal Corps, including four flights across the Atlantic, two flights to the Aleutian Islands, and the expedition to North Africa, where he was head of the unit sent to film America's fight there. Now he has authored "Tunis Expedition," the first book out on the battle for North Africa being waged by the American Expeditionary Force.

On one occasion, Colonel Zanuck tells, he unwittingly slept all night in a hotel while two unexploded 500-pound bombs lodged next door. Not only the hotel but the whole surrounding block had been evacuated, and the next morning when the gendarme in charge saw Zanuck wandering sleepily out of the front door, he seemed unsure whether to arrest him or give him the Croix de Guerre for bravery.

The official story of the British Commandos will shortly be told in a book titled "Combined Operations," which is to be distributed by the Book-of-the-Month Club in June, along with "Winter's Tales" by the Danish Baroness, Isak Dinesen. "Combined Operations" will be published anonymously, though the author is Hilary St. George Saunders who also wrote "Battle for Britain" and "Bomber Command," two other books concerning the British phase of the war. Lord Louis Mountbatten, chief of Britain's Combined Operations, will write the preface.

Virginia Paxton, wife of an American correspondent, tells some amusing incidents about their early experiences in South America in her book, "Penthouse in Bogota." On their first morning her husband consulted his Spanish dictionary and then proudly announced he was equipped to order breakfast. He gave his order to the waiter, who looked bewildered and then vanished. Eventually the manager came to their rescue. It seemed that the young man, instead of requesting fried eggs, as he had thought, had been demanding that the waiter bring him two orders of "fried Thursdays."

REPORT 92 CASES OF GERMAN MEASLES

Total of Contagion Climbs to 2369 in Nearly 4 Months

While measles cases showed a decline in Lower Merion this past week the milder form of the disease still listed officially as German measles—was on the increase. For the week ending April 16 there were 92 cases of German measles as compared to 71 cases of measles. With the exception of Gladwyne, where only three cases occurred, the other cases were distributed fairly evenly throughout the Township.

At present 148 measles cases still remain under quarantine. German measles cases are not held in quarantine.

Robert J. Thomas, health officer, reported other contagion cases of the week as follows:

Chicken pox, 5; mumps, 3; tuberculosis, 1; and whooping cough, 6.

With less than four months of the new year passed the grand total of contagious cases reported is 2369 which is almost double the number of cases that have been reported for the entire 12 months of a number of previous years.

Most of this is accounted for by measles. To date 1323 measles and 725 German measles cases have been reported.

ADVISORY GAS PANEL AIDS RATION BOARD

Unofficial Group Will Make Recommendations in Special Cases

An innovation in solving some of the knottier problems of gasoline rationing made its appearance on Tuesday evening at Local Ration Board No. 2646-4, Bryn Mawr, when a newly chosen group of local citizens—not members of the Board—met for the first time as an advisory gasoline panel.

Formed at the suggestion of the Board, under the chairmanship of Henry H. Perry, the new panel is composed of Raymond S. Gray, plumbing contractor; William L. Hayden, hardware merchant; Samuel N. Kirkland, stock broker; Alfred I. Reese, lawyer; all of Bryn Mawr; and Robert C. Jameson, teacher, of Haverford.

"In the administration of gasoline rationing," said a Board spokesman this week, "we feel that as many considered opinions as possible should be brought to bear on cases in which motorists feel that all factors have not been taken into account. In such cases the Board is reluctant to assume entire responsibility for decisions which are so vital to the civilian economy. The panel will review problems in the light of the applicant's work, whether or not the applicant may be able to use public transportation to get to that work, and the like. The panel will then make recommendations to the Board."

The most noteworthy features of the operation of this panel it was pointed out, will be those: it will not sit as a formal judge and jury to indict drivers of misuse of scarce gasoline; rather, it will try by informal questioning to determine a fair ration for drivers whose needs or status suggest the necessity for careful study. Its position will be unofficial, and its recommendations may or may not be accepted by the Board after further study.

GETS PROMOTION

Corporal Edward J. Burgess, son of Mrs. George Burgess, 242 Hampden Ave., Narberth, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant. He is stationed at Camp Polk, Louisiana and was inducted in November.

amounting to $2600. Wednesday night the audience at the Suburban in Ardmore heard a sailor who had served on the Aircraft Carrier Lexington, Jack Whitte. Next Tuesday a similar program will be held again at the Narberth Theatre and at the Egyptian Theatre, Bala-Cynwyd, next Friday, April 30.

Lower Merion Township Commissioners likewise gave the campaign a boost by adopting a resolution Wednesday night to put $40,000 in township funds into Treasury 2 per cent certificates.

A meeting of War Loan workers of Merion was held Sunday night at the Merion War Tribune House under the leadership of Clarence E. Hall, the area chairman, at which the territory was completely zoned and organized. Volunteers have been appointed for each zone in the community and substantial subscriptions already received. The Merion Civic Association lent its support to the drive by sending a letter to all residents of the community urging support of the campaign. The Episcopal Academy student body and its headmaster, Greville Haslam, are assisting also.

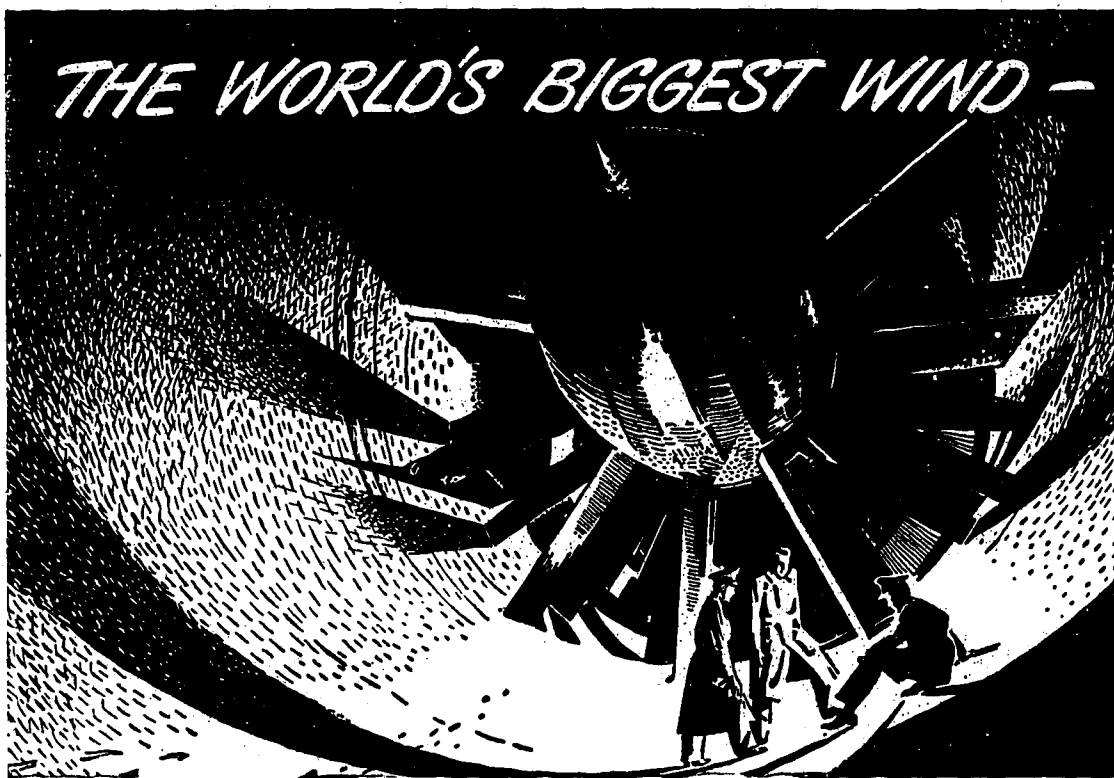

In the Bala-Cynwyd area, Edmund G. S. Flannigan has been named to head the drive. He succeeds Arthur Littleton who was unable to serve. Assisting Flannigan will be Lloyd Unger, Alexander C. Walton, John C. O'Connor, George W. Kirkpatrick, Joseph Conway, Charles S. Shinn, David G. Wilson and the Neighborhood Club of Bala-Cynwyd.

In Penn Valley, the campaign will be headed by Miss Mary Laffen.

In Narberth, Carl B. Metzger, Jr., the area chairman, reported very good response by residents to the campaign. Some of the larger denominations of bonds are being sold, he reported, as well as considerable numbers of small ones.

BUY WAR BONDS

TO BLAST THE WORLD'S BIGGEST WINDBAGS!

A roaring, raging hurricane seldom hits harder than 100 miles an hour. But at Wright Field, Ohio, Air Force engineers whip up an almost unbelievable 100-mile wind—to help improve American military planes.

Two forty-foot fans, weighing nearly a million pounds, put the "hurry" in this hurricane tunnel. They're driven by a huge 125-ton electric motor with a terrific horsepower rating. They permit accurate tests of large-scale plane models at speeds up to 400 miles an hour.

America's sleek fighters and burly bombers are faster, safer, more deadly to the enemy, because America has the world's biggest wind tunnels—and the world's biggest supply of electric power.

In fact, electric power is basic to nearly all war production. It turns the machines that turn out tanks, planes and guns. It welds the steel seams of ships. It flashes the urgent words of war by air and by wire.

War has brought shortages of many materials, but there has been plenty of electric power for war production. The electric companies under business management, supplying about seven-eighths of all America's electric power, had a BIG job to do—and did it!

Township Studies Plan to Spend Millions on Post-War Projects

Relief of Traffic and Parking in Business Sections is Listed; Destined to Create Civic Paradise in Lower Merion, says Official

A post-war planning program totalling several millions of dollars is being studied by public officials and engineers in Lower Merion Township.

The far-reaching program of improvements is one of the first to be introduced in any of Pennsylvania's smaller municipalities of townships and boroughs. Several similar programs are being studied by county engineers' staffs.

Evan L. James, township manager, following the meeting of Lower Merion commissioners Wednesday night, said that, as yet, the program was only in the study stage. "Before we begin talking about specific projects," he said "all the items will have to be called over and listed according to their importance."

In order to inaugurate the program each department head was asked to list all the projects he considered worthy for consideration as post-war work. The list of highway improvements, alone, exceeds $2,000,000.

Township officials expressed their desire to be prepared if Federal or State funds were made available for such work during the post-war period.

One of the largest projects, which has been recommended, is the relief of traffic conditions and provision for ample parking in the Township's business districts. The three major business sections are Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Bala-Cynwyd.

The post-war planning program aims to catch up on all improvements which had to be postponed when priorities were placed on most road, sewer and construction materials. In addition, it has listed other projects that, according to one commissioner, are destined to create a civic paradise for Lower Merion. Further extension of Lower Merion's park and parkway system, which is already well developed, is asked in the recommendation projects. Road and sewer improvements will be made on a greatly increased scale. Completion of the police department building in the rear of the Township Building is also asked.

Virtually all departments including administrative, building, sewers, highways, shade tree, planning, health and police have submitted a list of projects. Commissioners have turned the list of projects over to the Lower Merion Planning Commission before a more detailed study before it is made public.

Rose Tree Hunt Cancels Spring Races

The Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club, the oldest fox hunting club in America will not hold their annual mid May Spring races this year on account of war condition.

The club owns 100 acres of land near Media and controls over 8,000 acres of hunting territory and maintains a kennel of over eighty dogs. The dumb-bell shaped race course is famous all over the country.

Hunts are conducted four days a week from Thanksgiving Day to St. Patrick's Day. The annual Fall meeting in October has been one of the important social and racing events since the club was founded.

Walter M. Jeffords is president, J. Gordon Peterman, secretary and Alexander Sellers, Master of Fox Hounds.

Hedgerow Players To Give "L'Absence"

Charles Vildrac, hailed as the exponent of the new French drama before the occupation of France, is the author of the new play which the Hedgerow Theatre in Moylan-Rose Valley, Pa., will present for the first time in America on Saturday, May 1, 1943.

The performance of "L'Absence," a story of the corruption of the Paris Theatre foreshadowing the rise of fascism in France, will start the Hedgerow Theatre on its twentieth year of producing significant drama.

Due to the gasoline and rubber shortage, the theatre has scheduled performances in Rose Valley on only two nights a week during May, Friday and Saturdays.

CONDUCTS BACH FESTIVAL

James Allan Dash, Ardmore, will conduct the Fifth Annual Philadelphia Bach Festival on May 8 at St. James' Church, 22d and Walnut Sts., Philadelphia. There will be two programs, one at 4 P. M. and one at 8:30 P. M.

By LYTLE HULL

The New York Times sent out a questionnaire on American History to the freshmen classes of 36 colleges in every section of the United States. It was answered by about 7,000 students. Fortunately, for the farmer—horses can't read, or many a useful steed would have laughed himself to death over some of the answers—thus further aggravating the food situation.

Now it cannot be denied that people will fight harder if they know what they are fighting for: love harder if they know what they are loving; and work harder if they know what they are working for. How can a man put his whole being into a fight for his country if to him that country is just a hunk of real estate? How can he love a country enough to die for it if he knows little or nothing of the people and of the blood and sweat which made that country something into love? How can we expect one to work his heart out for a land of whose life story he is ignorant?

There is, as we all know, a terrible death struggle going on from top to bottom of western Russia. It remains for the future to inform us upon what principles, or theories, or facts, or imaginings, Hitler and German military were induced to take the action against Russia which today appears to be one of the greatest and most far-reaching blunders in military history. Call them passion for world domination, or fear, or hatred, or conflicting ideologies; whatever they were, they are forgotten now, and men are giving their bodies and their souls for their fatherlands only. Those men have been Russians or Germans for a thousand years and more. The very soil of their countries is mixed in their blood. It is as instinctive for them to die for their country as it is for a she-wolf to die for her young. We are a newer nation and it would not seem reasonable that this instinct should be rooted as deeply in us. If this is the case, then we make up for it—on the battlefield at least—by a higher standard of intelligence and a sub-conscious spirit of adventure and determination inherited from those courageous men and women who braved the dangerous unknown to settle this land; for Americans have proven all through their history, that as soldiers they have no superiors. Add to these qualifications that passion for country which familiarity with its birth throes and its long hard struggle for existence do surely intensify, and we create the world's outstanding fightingman for times like the present, and progressive citizen for times of peace.

The entire youth of this nation must be taught what it means, and what it stands for, and how it started on its way, and what keeps it going. A true knowledge of our history will make any American, man, woman or child, proud of his co-ownership in this vital result of the efforts of our forefathers.

Most people fall in putting over their ideas: 1. Because they don't prepare thoroughly. 2. Because they allow themselves to become discouraged before the "spade work" is completed. And most new ideas require a lot of digging in.

Victory Gardeners To Face No Shortages

Victory gardeners may chase potato bugs and rake and hoe in their backyard plots with no fear of "shortages" of Paris green and garden tools, the War Production Board said tonight.

Fashions in hand tools have, however, been standardized and the "fancy" ones are on the way out. Instead of 362 types of hoes for instance, there will be only 39 styles to choose from. There will be only eight kind of rakes instead of 55 and only 76 types of forks whereas there once were 324 styles to choose from.

Garden hose and spray guns are available.

There will be plenty of "ammunition" to combat an ypest which might find their way to "sabotage" garden crops.

Aphids will meet their nemesis with a dose or two of nicotine sulphate, as will cucumber beetles and corn and squash borers.

Flea beetles, cabbage worms, Mexican beetles, and other insects can be eliminated with cryolite, the WPB said, but warned that it is also "poisonous to man."

Pests from cutworms to corn earworms can be combated with poisonous arsenicals.

Keep meat and poultry in your coldest storage place—45 degrees or lower.

NARBERTH SCHOOL NEWS

Eighty-eight pupils of the Narberth Public School, supervised by Mr. Lehman and Mrs. Hunsicker, attended the Children's Theatre performance of "Captive Maid" of Old Carlisle at Town Hall, Philadelphia, on April 3.

The honor roll for the third term was announced by Mr. Dreinen on April 9.

First honors in sixth grade were Rose Mary Gorman, Nancy Hunsicker, Ann O'Brien and Janet Stewart; second honors went to Dorothy Sont, Barbara Stoops, Hugh Annett, Seely Aronson, Robert Watson and William Wicand.

In the seventh grade, first honors went to Marion Jones, Louise Jones, Louise Purring, Jean Ridge, Dick Blessing, oBoth Mattson, Margaret Robb, Alan Kirk, Bill Lillis, June Schrepper and John Dabback, while second honors went to Carol Clark, June Leins, Louise Watts, Libby Ridenour, Joe Hutton and Frances Henderson.

First honor in the eighth grade were won by Bob Chambers, Joe Rea, Jane Miller, Demetra Chios, Joyce Reisner, Donald Dever, Ruth Mary Aronson, Joyce Boardman and Don Pearson. Second honors went to Mary Purring, Tom Lewis, Bill Silder, Irene Burns and Alice Luchtemeyer.

On April 26, some of the students of Narberth Public School will present the third of a series of programs entitled "Your Schools in the War" over station KYW at 9:15 A. M. The time for these programs which run 15 minutes has been donated by station KYW.

The two other schools that will have radio programs before ours are Darby High School and Lansdowne.

The race to buy two jeeps is on! Yes, each pupil's quota will be to try to beat their last month's total of Defense Stamps and Bonds. Narberth Public School's quota is $1,800, as each jeep costs $900. This campaign will last through April. When a pupil exceeds his March quota, he will get a white card with a riddle saying:

"I made my quota of stamps this week to help Uncle Sam buy two more jeeps."

Once this month, every class will try to have more than 90 percent of the class buy Bonds and Stamps. If every class can do this, our school will earn the Minute Man Flag.

The bonds sold here at school during April will go toward the Borough's quota of Bonds for the second War Loan Drive.

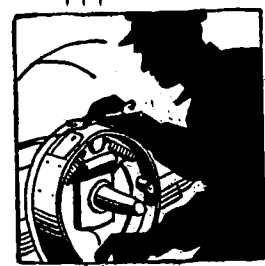

Demetra Chios, School Reporter.

HIGH NOTES

by DAVID MALICKSON

Class of 1945—Lower Merion High School

New Subjects

In order to keep in step with the ever-changing world of today, Lower Merion will offer to its students, next year, many new courses. The Band, next term, will meet three times a week—1/2 unit credit; each boy having a lesson a week—1/2 credit. Girls may elect shop courses. Aeronautics will be offered if elected by a sufficient group of students. Pre-Induction Physics and Pre-Induction Mathematics are two courses offered especially for boys 17 years old. No previous mathematics are required for either subject. Each course gives a 1/2 unit credit, classes will be held daily for one semester.

The students of L. M. High will dance to the music of the Mayfair Men on May first in the Down's Gym. The Sophomore Hop, which will begin at 9 o'clock, is under the direction of the officers and advisors of the Sophomore Class. It has been announced by chairman of the Decoration Committee, Jane Austin, that the theme for this year's dance will be a Caribbean Cruise. Stey Young, president of the Sophomore Class has said that this dance will be the best one given yet this year, and hopes many will attend. The price of admission will be the usual one dollar and sixty-five cents—"stag or with a tad."

Ted Herbert, Gloria Wallace, Jane Austin, Dot Biddle, Fred Baker, David Malickson, are chairmen of the dance, poster, decoration, refreshment, ticket and publicity committee, respectively.

"A sure bet" for a good night's entertainment is the Senior Play to be presented on the nights of May 12, 14 and 15. Because of the disbanding of the Showpeoples Club this is the first, and probably the only play to be presented this year by the students of L. M.

Mr. Alan Sampson, faculty advisor, said that the play, "Mr. and Mrs. North," was first presented in the Belasco Theatre, New York.

A FRANK STATEMENT and a promise TO THOSE WE SERVE

YOU know how hard it is to get—and hold—well-trained help today.

We face the same problem—multiplied many times over. Most of our experienced help has gone to War—or into War work. It takes time to train new help—when you can get it.

And we, too, are rationed on so many of our supplies. Yet today, as our part in helping the home front, we must handle more laundry and cleaning volume than ever before—it MUST be done!

But under present conditions, as in so many other businesses, it is not possible for us to maintain our usual peacetime service standards.

However, let us assure you of two things—

FIRST: we are doing and will continue to do all we can to keep the quality of our work and our service up as near as possible to that standard you have come to expect from us.

SECOND: just as soon as may be possible, we will return to that standard of quality in both work and service that you have a right to expect from us in peace times.

In the meantime, will you try to understand our position—we, too, are doing our best with what we have to work with in these days. THANK YOU!

Author of "How to Win Friends and Influence People."

A furniture salesman in Lynn, Mass., was troubled with insomnia. Night after night he tossed on his pillow; couldn't sleep.

One night an idea hit him, a simple idea; that there must be thousands of people in the United States who were having the same trouble he was. If he could help them he not only would be doing a great service, but he might also make some money.

The more he thought about the idea, the better it seemed. But he resolved not to go off half-cocked. He would look ahead, and plan. He decided to open a shop for articles to induce sleep, and he would not include medicines or sleep sedatives.

His name was Norman Dine. Here's the way he put over his idea, an example of what thought and careful planning will accomplish. First he resolved to learn all about sleep that he could, and so he came to New York and took special courses dealing with psychology and physiology at Columbia University.

His next step was to call on manufacturers of beds and bedside lights, and ask them to co-operate with him in opening a "sleep shop," where nothing would be sold which did not have to do with sleep. The manufacturers stared at him. Must be crazy. Their answer was "No."

He still believed his idea sound, and that he had an appeal to human need that was deep and fundamental. He then went to the biggest department store in New York and asked them to allot him space for a "sleep shop." Again the answer was "No."

He went to another department store. Same result. In fact eleven department stores turned down his idea.

He peddled his idea for two years, then a specialty store spoke the encouraging word of three letters. He opened his shop with 75 items in it.

I visited it seven years later and how many sleep-woolers do you

M. L. LEAGUE PLANS SEASON DESPITE WAR

Organization Meeting at Narberth Listed for May 10

The Main Line Baseball League, which has operated without a lapse for 35 years, is making plans for another campaign despite wartime difficulties.

Five of last year's six members have expressed their willingness to put teams on the field despite a scarcity of players and transportation problems. Gladwyne A. A. is the only club that hasn't made a decision. The league will organize officially May 10 at Narberth.

Manoa A. A., 1942 champion, recently voted to field a team again, but its participation in the league hinges on its ability to renew its lease on Bergdoll Field, West Chester pike and Eagle Rd.

The uncertainty of Manoa's field was the only thing that kept the league from definitely reorganizing last Monday when the managers met with Walter Hanley, league president, and other loop officials, to discuss informally the 1943 outlook.

Narberth, runnerup last year, previously had taken it for granted that there wouldn't be a league this year but had decided to have a team just the same and play independent ball. However, when Manager Gene Davis learned that Manoa, Overbrook, Brookline and Irvin's Collegians were planning to have teams he said that Narberth naturally could be "counted in."

Judging from the sentiment at last Monday's meeting the league will operate only on Sundays instead of the customary Saturday and Sunday schedule of the past.

An effort will be made to arrange most of the games for the Narberth and Manoa fields. These towns are the center of baseball interest on the Main Line and both are easily reached by public transportation facilities.

Ask Observance of Good Friday

The Main Line Good Friday Observance Committee sponsored by the churches, civic groups, fraternal societies and service clubs of the Main Line district has organized for its 1943 campaign.

The committee wishes to thank Main Line businessmen for their co-operation in the past and asks that this co-operation be manifested again this year by closing their places of business from noon to 3:00 P. M. on Good Friday, April 23.

ORDINANCE

Borough of Narberth who shall issue a summons for a hearing to be held within not less than three days nor more than 10 days from date of service, unless continued for cause shown.

SECTION 4. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to a fine of not less than Five ($5.00) Dollars and costs of prosecution, or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days, or both, said fine to be paid to the Treasurer for the use of the Borough of Narberth.

SECTION 5. All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances inconsistent herewith and specifically Ordinance No. 97, approved the 3rd day of August, A. D. 1903, are hereby repealed.

Report 5582 Calls By Visiting Nurses

that of the total number of calls made by the eleven visiting nurses on the staff during the January-March period. 1273 were pay; 3551 were health education visits, for which there is no charge; 465 were paid by insurance companies; and 79 were for the Department of Public Assistance.

Miss Beerstecher said that the need for practical nurses is grave, and many more could be used. People needing a practical nurse call the Health and Civic Association, and are given the name of a nurse to contact. Practical nurses, who are not graduates, usually stay by the week to take the mother's place in caring for the ill and the family.

The Community Health and Civic Health Association is supported by the Community Fund, Boards of Health, fees from the nursing service, Christmas seal sales, insurance fees, the Red Cross, and donations from other organizations.

Officers of the Board are: Markley Stevenson, president; vice-presidents, Mrs. J. Emot Caldwell, Mrs. William T. Dickson, Mrs. J. Bennett Hill, Rev. Andrew Mutch, and William H. McCreary; secretary, Benjamin M. Fowler, Jr.; treasurer, Henry H. Perry; and solicitor, John E. Forsythe, Jr.

Vital War Role for Springfield Water

When the water supply of Singapore was cut off, its defense became hopeless and surrender to the invaders was inevitable.

Many other sieges throughout the course of history have turned upon this vital factor.

Water has the same relation to our war plants which need an uninterrupted supply in order to turn out arms and munitions.

Use Springfield Water carefully.
